10:00 AM December 10, 2020

The 2020 Asia Leaders Awards' Franchise Foundation Foundation for Asia's Outstanding Business Awards has recognized the leadership of the top executives of the JC conglomerate — Jonathan So, president and CEO, and Carlito Macadangdang, vice president and CFO — as this year's Best

PeopleAsia MEN WHO MATTER 2021

Jonathan So, president and CEO of JC—the company behind the highly coveted franchise Siomai King, as well as the recently launched transport logistics provider toktok and online shopping platform toktok Mall, to name a few, is also on this year's list. The businessman shares his journey from being a working student at the De La Salle College of St. Benilde, to heading his own highly diversified company.

JC co-founder and CPO Carlito Macadangdang is also being recognized for his role in not just establishing the highly successful business, but also his effective fiscal strategies that contribute to its sound and aggressive growth.

Siomai King hailed as Asia Leaders Awards' Franchise Company of the Year

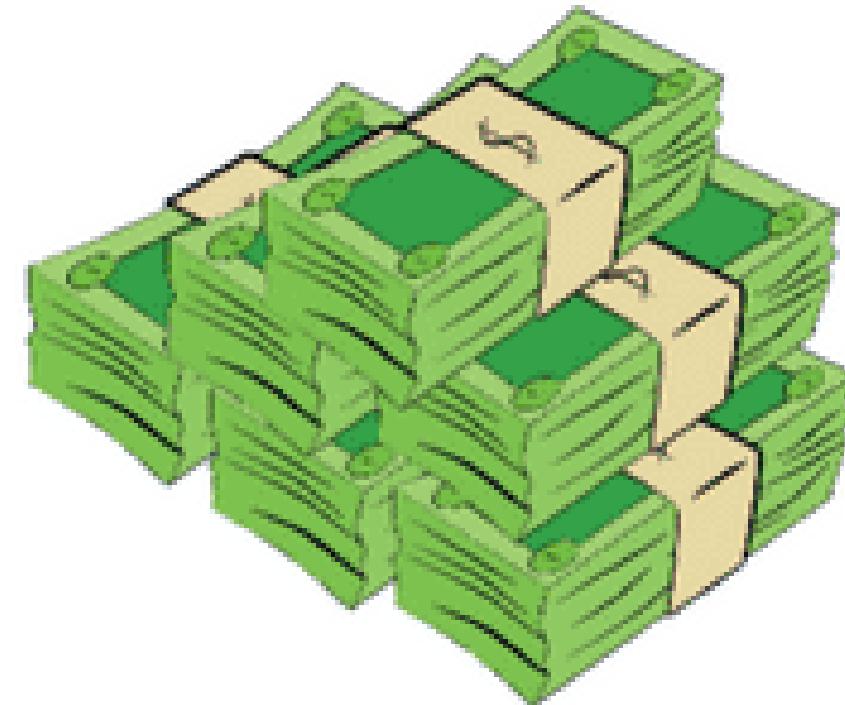

MANILA, Philippines — The Asia Leaders awards — an award-giving body that recognizes business leaders who excelled in their respective fields and contributed to making the country a potential provider business both across Asia and beyond, has hailed Siomai King by JC Worldwide Franchise Inc. as this year's "Franchise Company of the Year."

Siomai King, the popular Filipino food product line of JC Worldwide Franchise Inc., offers all-time favorite Chinese treats like its renowned and delectable siomai with their distinct tastes (Shanghai, Shanghai Chicken, and Japanese), its finger-licking wings, savory spicy chicken, and mouthful-to-the-tooth Beef Noodle soup others.
